What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm not really fussy about the type of job I get..... as long as I can do what is needed of me to do.I'm willing to take chances because I believe that in order to grow:there has to be challenges a person should come across.I prefer nursing because that's where I believe I go all out in doing what I am passionate about and putting a smile in a person that I help.In getting this job I assure you as my employer you won't regret having me as one of your staff because I am prepared to work hard.
