What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as Btech Management Graduate from Walter Sisulu University. I am passionate driven young women from a small town named Fort Beaufort in the Eastern Cape. In the past 6 months, I have worked as Volunteering Library assistant at the Department of Education (Fort Beaufort), I also have over 2 years' retail experience where gained most of my experience of becoming a successful individual.

I pride myself on being a creative thinker and a good decision maker. I am always dedicated to the task at hand and not losing sight of my long-term goals. I believe in a good relationship with my colleagues as a foundation from which every race would start. I am a fast and eager person who believes knowledge is power. Amongst my colleagues, I have proven myself as a leader and a good organizer. I am looking for an administrative/Production job ,willing to expand my knowledge and learn new things .I'm also willing to work with different people from different background .
