What job i'm looking for? My positive points

SKILLS

I'm a self-motivated hard working individual, I haven't had the opportunity yet to further my studies through tertiary but its goal I have set to achieve. I've worked my way up from being a cashier, apprentice, from junior to senior technician to where I am right now as a Systems Engineer.

I've got my mind set on being successful in my filed of expertise, I'm a leader and can work under pressure, reliable and responsible.

Everything I've achieved was through hard work and dedication, given the opportunity I believe that I can be an asset to your company as my experience speaks for itself but work ethic even more.
