What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for forklift driver job or maintenance job. I worked for enrc management as a receiving clerk and forklift operator after the company retrenched several people including me, I worked for caterpillar logistics but working under agent called kaofela Kmsg agency. I worked as maintenance assistant. So my contract expired on the 14/10/2017 which was last Saturday and never renewed as the company had no enough money to proceed with the agency. I am a hard working person who is dedicated to work under pressure and team work is my mentor and I'm a very enthusiastic person who is very honest all the times. I'm cool, calm and collected person. Business hours are more important than anything else to me. I always consider myself to perform my duties with 100% rate. Your recommendation will be highly appreciated. Thank u very much.
