What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm qualified as an enrolled nurse since 2009, worked at a uro neuro surgical ward for three years, hood with insertion of drip and catheters, and then I joined medicross there was working at an emergency section. Administration of meds, assisting Dr with suturing, and application of pop and removal, lung function tests, tress ECG, and sterilization of packs. Worked at Ampath for 5yrs and now currently working for Lancet. So my passion in a medical industry is helping the sick. I would like to go back to bedside as I don't feel that much challenge at a laboratory.
