What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Looking for a drivers Job. I passed my matric and continued to do Electrical engineering which I dropped out on it due to some difficulties. Went to Mercedes Benz South Africa MBSA training center. I can easily learn any area and very good in taking directions as I passed well my Geography as well into that regard. I am always in sober senses reliable and trustworthy (I am not taking alcohol). Good with time keeping. An Out Spoken Person. Computer literate but (without certificate) I am a responsible single father of two kids age 11 and 12. I like new challenges.(Continuous improvement).

I hope that you will find this sufficient for you to consider hiring me. I have been driving for a very long time even though my job has never been driving before. I have worked for MBSA as a supervisor from being an assembler to become a constituency leader.
