What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Dear Lisa

I hereby wish to apply for this position advertised by your company. At this point in my career, I am seeking new professional challenges and opportunities where I can continue to provide strong, decisive and creative market driven results. This reflects my interest in your organization and request for a personal interview. I am keen on getting as much concrete working experience to uplift, expand and develop my skills, knowledge and understanding in this working environment.

I am motivated, enthusiastic, deadline driven and hardworking, a team player and people person who enjoys facing challenges and persevering. My greatest aspiration is to work in a successful and reputable enterprise where my core skills will be fully utilized.

Once afforded this opportunity I will prove myself a worthwhile entity to the company in terms of delivering professional, high quality service to the company's clients in an ethical independent manner compelling clients to transact with the company continuously. I have excellent interpersonal skills, including identifying problems, listening skills, facilitating decision making and handling conflict situations.

I have attached my CV for your perusal
