What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a Administrative job.I posses strong verbal,written,communication and administrative skills. I am a team player who had worked with teams of different people which means that I quickly become adaptable and flexible. I am approachable and tolerant but maintain high standards and communicate quickly and clearly with others. I am articulate, reliable, punctual and good at time management. My mature outlook allows me to be a soothing influence at times when under pressure and I have wide experience of work to draw on when needed. I would enjoy contributing my Administrative skills to your institution.
