What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I have 10 years of experience working as a General Worker where cleaned the offices. I have a very outgoing personality well suited for this type of work with the ability to help create a friendly and pleasant environment that encourages excellent business

I have the ability to learn the department in an efficient manner. I can provide suggestions and give them information about cleaning service. I can handle complaints and unhappy clients discreetly and I understand how important it is to provide excellent customer service.

I always follow company policies concerning dress code, personal hygiene and proper procedures. I get along well with my co-workers but I am also self -motivated and able to work efficiently without supervision.
