What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a sales job as a promoter, I am currently employed at credico as a pik n pay store account promoter. Within these few days of development I have seen the need of maintaining a positive attitude, being prepared, Time management, as well as taking control of everything by making use of my abilities.

The reason why I am applying for this job is that currently I have to leave the job not intentionally but the situation forces me to since it is a commission based salary.

The relationship with the company I am working on currently is Good and The communication is good also, however I have to leave for I am not used to estimations since I have to deal with estimating my budget.

Preferred occupation Promoter
