What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm a general worker ,I previously worked as a van assistant for tip-top recruitment agency for 3years until I opened my small business selling at train stations now due to high rate of unemployment business is now very slow that is why I decided to search for a permanent job to support my family, at my previous employer tip top agencies I had to leave after saving some of the money I earned then to start a small business and due to demanding of transport fare thank you and I hope my request will be considered
