What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a driver position because I am experienced in it and I have already worked for many companies and I do not have a bad record. For me it is mandatory to put me only in this position because I am versatile hence I worked at MSC as a kitchen utility.

I hope it could be advantageous for me to be hired in various positions because I have N6 in mechanical engineering.

I hope my application will be considered.

Yours faithful
